Re: United States v. Feng Jiang,
Docket No. 1:24-cr-00264-ARR

Your Honor:

As the Court is aware, this firm represents the Defendant Feng Jiang in the above-referenced matter. Sentencing in this matter is currently scheduled for July 23rd, with the Defendant's sentencing submission due this Wednesday, July 9th.

I am writing to respectfully request a continuance of the sentencing date due to a personal medical issue. This past Friday I was involved in accident which resulted in a neck injury. I was hospitalized over the weekend, and have been referred to a spine specialist and neurologist. Unfortunately, I do not anticipate that I will be able to finalize our sentencing submission by this Wednesday.

Accordingly, I am respectfully requesting an adjournment of sentencing to September of this year. I have conferred with AUSA Patrick Cambell, who has indicated that the Government does not oppose this application. Both parties would be available on the following dates in September: 9/15, 9/16, 9/17 or 9/18.

Thank you for considering this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

David Smith, Esq.

cc: AUSA Patrick Cambell
